

RICHARD M. FAIRBANKS FOUNDATION

2018 Grants Awarded in Health

| Organization | Project | Grants Awarded |
|---|---|---------------------------|
| Indiana State Medical Association/ Indiana Medical Foundation | Grant to develop and pilot free comprehensive continuing medical education on controlled substance prescribing and pain management for doctors and other clinicians through development of a mobile application, on-demand podcasts and monthly live webinars that will be available as enduring material. | $230,000 |
| Indiana University School of Medicine | Grant to develop and pilot CARE Plus , a treatment and community health worker outreach program that will leverage a human-centered design approach to provide services to opioid-dependent mothers and their babies, including medication-assisted treatment (MAT), personalized coaching, text messaging, social services, and intensive attachment therapy. | $844,055 |
| Prevention Matters | Planning grants awarded to Marion County public and accredited private K-12 schools to help recipients learn more about evidence-based, school-based substance use prevention programs and develop a detailed plan for effective and sustainable implementation | $861,840 |
| The Hahn Foundation | Grant to support the Alliance for a Healthier Indiana's "State of Our Health Road Show" to raise awareness of Indiana's health rankings and address the public health issues affecting the state | $25,000 |
| Indiana Humanities Council | Grant to support Indiana Humanities Council Inconversation event on the opioid epidemic in Indiana and how the state can start to use data to tackle the problem | $1,000 |
| TOTAL GRANTS AWARDED IN HEALTH | | $1,961,895 |